

DEBORAH DUNCAN, MA, MSN, RN

EDUCATION

University of Phoenix Masters of Science Nursing Administration	2002
University of Alabama Health Services Administration Certificate	1990
University of Alabama M.A. in Education Counseling and Human Services	1982
University of Alabama B.S.N.	1977

AWARDS

NATIONAL LEAGUE OF NURSING Lamplighter Award	1988
--	-------------

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Kingwood Medical Center Developed syllabus and overall course structure, assisted with practicums and clinical rotations for "The Nursing Academy"	2010
Southeast Alabama Medical Center, Dothan, Alabama Developed syllabus and overall course structure for "Perioperative Nursing College"	1991
Southeast Alabama Medical Center Developed syllabus and overall course structure for "Surgical Technology School"	1989

EXPERIENCE

SAM HOUSTON STATE UNIVERSITY CLINICAL ASSISTANT PROFESSOR	2014-PRESENT
Memorial Medical Center of Livingston House Supervisor Provides clinical and administrative support as needed to staff/patients/physicians	2013 – February 2017
Select Specialty Hospital House Supervisor Provides clinical and administrative support as needed to staff/patients/physicians	2013 -2015
Kingwood Medical Center Director Medical/Surgical Nursing Responsible & accountable for Medical/Surgical patient care delivered	2009-2013
Conroe Regional Medical Center Director of Perioperative Services Responsible and accountable for all care delivered within the Perioperative Service	2008-2009

MEMBERSHIPS

Sigma Theta Tau
American Organization of Nurse Executives (AONE)
Association of Perioperative Nurses (AORN)